Statements	Agree (1)	Disagree (2)	Reason
1. Paying taxes is not a duty but is imposed by the government. We should save taxes by all means.
2. Sometimes it is good to give a bribe to facilitate the processes in government offices.
3. I have my own choice of standing/not standing during the National Anthem.
4. It is ok if I drive a car in my colony even if I do not have a learning/driving license.
5. It is not compulsory to pass the driving test to get the license. We can take other routes too.
6. It is better to pay a 100 rupee note to the traffic police instead of getting challans.
7. Submitting fake bills to save income tax is not an offence.
8. Passport offices take a long time to process the passport. It is a good idea to take the help of some agents by giving some extra money.
9. It is of no use to wait at red lights if no policeman is standing and when there is not much traffic on the road.

10. If there is a garbage dump on the road, it is fine to throw chocolate wrappers on the dump.
11. My maid is being beaten up every day by her husband. I should not interfere.
12. I have a wedding ceremony at my home. I can use loudspeakers all the time at my home.
13. It is good to pay money in cash to purchase property and register only the balance amount paid by cheque.
14. It is ok to break the queue if I need to reach office/school on time.
15. My family is earning more than 1 lac per month, but we have an orange ration card so that we can use the card to avail government benefits.
16. I am eligible for reservation quota since ages and it is ok to take advantage in competitive exams, even though I am intelligent enough for fair competition.
17. I know one 14-year-old child working in my friend's factory who looks like 18. I don't have to stop him.
18. Giving a 10 rupee note to a beggar will help him/her to buy something to eat.
19. Festivals are for celebrating. We should not complain about noise or air pollution caused due to the bursting of crackers.
20. Every child belongs to a particular class of the society. The parents should choose a school that matches their status in the society.
