

Roleplay

Character list:

- Meena
- Mom
- Receptionist
- School clerk
- Man at the counter

(Meena and mom enter the school reception area)

Meena: I am so excited to get admitted to this new school.

Mom: Yes! I am sure you are...

Meena: let's quickly pay the fees, there I can see the fee counter, Ma!

Mom: There is a procedure of documentation to be completed before you pay fees, dear child.

(They go to the reception)

Mom: We are here for the new admission.

Receptionist: Welcome! to our school. You must first complete the documentation and then pay the fee.

This is the list of documents to be submitted. Please get them ready.

Mom: Okay! Mom reads out aloud.

List of documents

- Correct and authorized the Birth Certificate of the student.
- Residential proof of student and parents: Aadhar card or Ration card, Smart Card
- bearing the name of the parents or Pan card issued not older than 3 months
- Domicile Certificate: Child or parents. Voter ID card of any parent.
- Previous mark sheet
- Caste certificate (if any)

(Note: Document required may vary from school to school this is just an example)

Meena: Mom, what are the documents that we are going to submit for admission?

Mom: We will give your Aadhaar card, Birth Certificate, previous School Marksheet, and Caste certificate is needed for students belonging to special caste but, we don't need them as we are not falling in that category. We will also give mine (mom) and dad's Voter's card and Pan card copies.

Meena: Do elders have different id proofs than children?

Mom: They have more documents than children. As some documents are issued by the government after a certain age. E.g., Voter's card is issued after 18 years of age. My documents are ready. Let us get in the line.

Meena and Mom stand in the line.

(Clerk at the counter talking to a man standing at the counter.)

Clerk: Sir, we are sorry we cannot give you admission as you have not submitted the birth certificate of your child.

Man: Ok (returns with a sad face)

Clerk: Next, please!

Mom: Here you are (she hands over all the documents)

Clerk: Thank you madam for submitting the correct documents. You can now pay the fees.

Meena: Hurray!

-Play Ends-