Narrator

Management Person

Principal

Teacher

3-4 teachers (no dialogue)

3-4 students (no dialogue)

(Narrator – In a certain School, A management person and School Principal are talking with each other)

Management Person: Principal Sharma, how are you? Management has decided these rules for school. Inform everyone about them.

Principal (reading the rules & shocked expression): These rules are shocking. None of the parents or teachers including me were consulted for these rules.

Management: Just do as I say, go and share these rules with everyone. Everyone has to follow them.

(Narrator - Principal goes and reads out the rules to teachers)

Principal: Management has decided a few rules without any consultation with the principal, teachers, parents, etc. I will release a circular to parents about these rules. Also, display them on notice board. To inform the students, teachers read these rules in your class.

(3-4 teachers nodding their head as they listen to Principal.)

Narrator – Teacher reading the rules to students.

Teacher: School Management has decided on a few rules which are applicable going forward. They are:

- 1) Children will sit for entire year in the same seat as assigned by teacher.
- 2) Common hair cut for all boys and common hair cut for all girls.
- 3) Common punishment for any kind of offence big or small.
- 4) Even if one person is talking in the class, the teacher will ask the whole class to do extra work.
- 5) Girls will have sports period and Boy will have Music period for Grade 7 students.

Students murmur among themselves discussing the rules.

Situation 2 – Group B

Teacher: As we start this new academic year, let us all come together and decide 3-4 rules that all of you will follow in class.

Rita raises her hand.

Rita – We will not run here and there in class.

Some children disagree and make noises, Shyam raises his hand.

Teacher – Yes Shyam.

Shyam – We can say that – We will not run here and there in class while class is going on.

Everyone agrees and teacher writes the rule on board.

Rohan – We will not litter in the classroom.

Everyone agrees and teacher writes on the board.

Seema – We will not talk when the teacher is teaching.

Teacher – Instead we can frame it as – We will listen attentively when teacher is teaching.

Everyone agrees and teacher writes on the board. In this manner, 4-5 rules for classroom are decided.

Teacher – what will happen if any of you are found breaking the rules made.

Tina – We can decide a consequence if any one of us is found not following the rule.

The teacher agrees and asks them to select a few students who will compile these consequences for class. The class chooses Seema, Rohan, Rita, and Shyam to create a list of some consequences on behalf of the class.

Note: Teacher can also guide the students for the script, and they can execute it in local language.
