

Annexure 2 – Clue Statement for Game

Teacher can select any 8-10 statements randomly. Ensure balance between orange and blue statements. Blue statements represent Democracy.

People can express their views to make laws.

No freedom of speech and expression.

People choose their representatives through elections

There are no fixed elections.

Everyone is free to use Social Media above certain age to express opinions.

Authorities cannot be questioned by people/citizens.

People are governed by those representatives, whom they elect by casting their vote.

When a Citizen disagrees with authorities, their citizenship is withdrawn.

Basic rights of citizens are protected in all scenarios.

Laws are different for different groups of people.

People get involve in the decision-making process directly or indirectly.

No one is allowed to use social media to express opinions.

Public facilities like hospitals, schools, etc are accessible for all.

Only few groups of people can avail certain public facilities.

People elect representatives to take decisions on their behalf.

Power is limited to few people.

