

Annexure 2 – Fundamental Rights

Fundamental Rights:

- Right to Equality: It means that everyone should be treated the same, no matter who they are or where they come from.
- Right to Freedom: It means that everyone has the right to speak their mind, worship as they choose, and live their life as they want, if they don't hurt others.
- Right against Exploitation: It means that no one should be forced to work without pay, be sold, or bought like an object, or be treated unfairly by anyone else.
- Right to Freedom of Religion: It means that everyone has the right to choose their own religion or beliefs and to practice them without fear of being punished or discriminated against.
- Cultural and Educational Rights: It means that everyone has the right to learn and speak their own language, to practice their own culture, and to be educated without discrimination.
- Right to Constitutional Remedies: It means that everyone has the right to seek justice in a court of law if they feel their rights have been violated, and the government must provide a fair and speedy trial.

Note: Students can also refer to Textbooks for Fundamental rights.
