

Annexure 1 – Issue Cards

Teacher can choose any cards in random order; extra cards are given to play the game if additional time is available.

Increased level of pollution – increased level of CO2 in the environment, smog, breathing problems, low visibility.

Lack of health-care services - To get patients good treatment in hospitals, the general public need to be someone well known to a politician. No good health care for the common man.

Lack of infrastructure - Lack of footpaths, bad roads, shelter-less bus stops, poor drainage system.

Corruption in Traffic Police - the breaking of rules, traffic signals, bribes to police, no challans and fines.

High donation for admission in private schools – long queue in admission counters for nursery admissions, hidden charges on parents.

Women’s insecurity – women are not safe in the city, especially during travelling.

Lack of safe drinking water - The water is highly unhealthy. Bore well water supply is not available everywhere.

Fraudulent coaching centers - Fake degrees and opening up lower-level coaching centers in each street.

Bad traffic congestion – Traffic jam and breaking the traffic rules by the public, lack of awareness of traffic rules.

Open garbage dumps on road – Lack of public awareness, no proper solid waste management system in the city.

E-Waste threat – Lack of awareness on proper disposal of e-waste, selling them to local kabadi walas, lack of recycling centers, poisonous effects of burning of e-

The poor condition of public toilets – Lack of public toilets, unhygienic toilets, and lack of sanitation in public toilets.

