

Annexure 1

Central Government

Manages the country's money-related matters through Reserve Bank of India. Eg: Demonetisation

Handles the administration and development of critical infrastructure sectors, for decisions like making The Statue of Unity.

Formulates and implements foreign policy and maintains relations with other countries. For Eg: to help/not help Russia on Russia-Ukraine matters.

Oversees public health matters. Eg: Decisions related to covid 19 vaccination and overall lockdown.

Responsible for matters related to the constitution, civil rights, and governance at the national level.

The Centre will decide what actions to take when India is under attack in consultation with Defence.

Takes decisions over citizenship matters. It will take a decision if a refugee should be given citizenship or not.

Manages the armed forces to safeguard the territorial integrity of the country.

Deals with all the affairs of railway management.

State Government

Is responsible for coordinating relief efforts and aiding during natural disasters or pandemic.

Has the authority to establish and maintain law and order in the state with the police.

Handles the functioning of hospitals, clinics, and public health initiatives within the state.

Is responsible for the establishment and management of schools and colleges in the state.

Deals with the agriculture related matters. It even is responsible for the research related to agriculture in their respective States.

Manages the development and maintenance of roads, bridges, and public transportation systems. (Public buses/metro etc)

Local Government

Construction and maintenance of public wells and toilets are the responsibilities of the local government (Panchayat).

Municipalities of different towns and cities are responsible for town planning. For Eg: Bombay Municipal Corporation is responsible of development of the Mumbai city.

Gram Sabha is responsible for identification of beneficiaries of schemes and policies in the village.

Municipalities are responsible for public amenities including street lighting, parking spaces, bus stops and public conveniences.

