

Annexure 2 – Clues to play the game.

Chits to play the game: Action mentioned on the chit is to be enacted without speaking.

Note: Enactment examples are only given for reference. Teachers may add examples as per the local issues examples aligned to Fundamental duties.

Underlined clues do not represent fundamental duties.

A child saluting the national flag.
Three wise monkeys of Gandhiji
Showing religious symbols and then joining hands to depict unity.
Act like a soldier defending in a war.
Show girl and boy both should be given equal opportunities.
Someone is writing on a monument (Taj Mahal)
Planting a tree
Throwing stones at streetlights.
Show a cat crossing the path and person stop walking

Taking a broom from the girl and giving her school bag.

Show a bird flying gets hit and falls. A person helping the bird.

A Traffic police officer not taking bribe.

Show a person damaging public property (streetlight or traffic light)

A person voting.

Person throwing waste in the rivers

Respectfully stand when national Anthem plays

Not to fight or beat other people

Show apple falls from tree and person thinks why (scientific temper)